Dan Schoen (DFL – St. Paul Park)... Schoen noted that many public safety administrators have recently taken positive steps on this issue, and lauded the efforts of Blue Watch, a group led by Minnesota police officers, chiefs and family members to provide assistance to law enforcement personnel experiencing mental health crises, trauma, anxiety, and substance abuse, to name a few.” (“RELEASE: Schoen introduces bill to expand coverage for first responders with PTSD,” Newstex Blogs, 4/18/16)

From 2011 To 2017, Seeberger Served In Several Top Leadership Roles At The Yellow Ribbon Network Of Washington County, MN

From 2011 To 2017, Seeberger Served As Chair, Vice-Chair, And Treasurer Of The Yellow Ribbon Network Of Washington County, MN. (Self-Nomination Form, Board Officer Elections p. 105, Math and Science Academy, Accessed 6/20/22)

- Yellow Ribbon Network of Washington County (Chair; Vice-Chair; Treasurer) 2011 - 2017

(Self-Nomination Form, Board Officer Elections p. 105, Math and Science Academy, Accessed 6/20/22)

According To The Self-Nomination Form, Seeberger Noted “The YRNWC Partners With The Minnesota National Guard To Support Military Families In Washington County.”

“The YRNWC partners with the Minnesota National Guard to support military families in Washington County. The network helps connect schools, local units of government, law enforcement, social services, churches, civic and volunteer organizations for the special needs of a military family during a deployment. Families from all branches of the military are supported through the Yellow Ribbon Network. The network is a collaborative effort involving concerned citizens, city leaders, citizens soldiers who are members of the military and volunteers.” (Self-Nomination Form, Board Officer Elections p. 105, Math and Science Academy, Accessed 6/20/22)

In March 2012, Seeberger Testified In Favor Of Bill HF1819—Sponsored By MN Rep. Bob Dettmer (R-Forest Lake)—That Would Grant Civil Immunity To Yellow Ribbon Network Volunteers. “But thanks to a group of civilian volunteers who participate in the Beyond the Yellow Ribbon program, snow plowing, yard work and other chores can get done at no cost to military families. However, the network of volunteers has become increasingly concerned about their liability in performing such chores, as have their clients. HF1819, sponsored by Rep. Bob Dettmer (R-Forest Lake), would provide civil immunity to program participants. The immunity would not apply if the work performed is part of a person’s regular employment and if they are compensated for it. For example, Judy Seeberger, who manages the Yellow Ribbon Network of Washington County, said she had help removing trees when her husband was deployed with the Navy. “There’s a network of folks doing it out of the goodness of their hearts,’ she said.” (Sue Hegarty, “Immunity for program volunteers,” Minnesota House of Representatives, 2/3/12; Thirty-First Meeting, 2011-2012 Regular Session, Minnesota House of Representatives, 3/5/12)

On April 10, 2022, Seeberger Tweeted That Her “Work On Behalf Of Veterans And Military Families Goes Back Many Years. I Am Proud Of My Work With The Yellow Ribbon Networks...” (Judy Seeberger, Twitter, 4/10/22)

Who’s going to get furloughed?’ she said. ‘It’s definitely something the city has been facing, and I guess I question whether a city of our size needs to be spending that kind of money on administration.’ Seeberger said it makes sense to review the matter now, given the fact that McGuire is scheduled to take a 30-day break from his job starting May 31.”

Statement on U.S. Supreme Court Decision Overturning Roe v. Wade

LAKELAND, Minn.— Earlier today, the United States Supreme Court announced a decision that overturned Roe v. Wade. In response to the precedent-breaking decision, DFL-endorsed candidate for Minnesota Senate District 41 Judy Seeberger (DFL- Afton) released the following statement:

"Today, the United States Supreme Court made one thing clear: they do not believe anything is sacred law in our country. So many Minnesotans have never known a country without Roe v. Wade, and today's decision rolls women's rights back almost 50 years. I will always stand and fight for women's rights to make their own healthcare decisions and continue to move us forward. Forward means a place where government isn't in our doctor's office dictating our choices. It means not revoking and rolling back Minnesota's long-recognized rights. It also means addressing the many crises we are facing, like disparities in infant and maternal health, and the devastating cost of healthcare.

"I have spent my career confronting difficult challenges head-on. In the legislature I will do what I do on every shift as a paramedic -- roll up my sleeves and get to work. The people of Senate District 41 can count on me to be on the front lines of the fight to protect a woman's right to make decisions about her own body."
